Synopsis When the ATAC system, which is used to control NATO Polaris submarines, is lost at sea, Bond is sent to recover it before it falls into the wrong hands. A story of cross and double-cross unfolds, before Bond finally establishes who the true villain is, all the while aided by the vengeful Melina.

Villains Aristotle Kristatos, Emil Locque, Erich Kriegler

Bond Girls Melina Havelock, Bibi, Lisl

Music Bill Conti

Title song 'For Your Eyes Only' sung by Sheena Easton

Notable points The plot uses parts of the novel Live and Let Die and the stories Risico and For Your Eyes Only (two of the Fleming short stories in FYEO) as well as adapting the motorcycle chase from the story A View To A Kill.
No M, as Bernard Lee died in January 1981.
Sheena Easton is the only Bond singer to appear on screen during the titles.
John Glen was editor and second unit director on three Bond films before this, his Bond directorial debut.
