Synopsis After drug baron Franz Sanchez maims Bond's friend Felix Leiter and kills his wife, Bond is out for revenge. When MI6 refuses to sanction Bond's involvement, Bond resigns his "00" status and begins to operate outside the law. After ruining Sanchez's American drug running operation and killing several of his associates, Bond introduces himself to Sanchez and offers his services as a "problem solver". Once inside the organisation, he sets about systematically destroying the drug baron's empire.

Villains Franz Sanchez, Dario

Bond Girls Lupe Lamora, Pam Bouvier

Music Michael Kamen

Title song 'Licence to Kill' sung by Gladys Knight

Notable points Licence to Kill is the only Bond film to receive a 15 certificate. David Hedison appears again as Leiter (first appeared in Live and Let Die). The scene where he is fed to the shark comes from Fleming's novel Live and Let Die.
